

NEWS*26 February 2010*RDS London drop-in sessions March 2010

RDS London is continuing to provide invaluable guidance and support to clinicians and academics preparing grant applications since its launch in July 2009.

Following on from the success of their drop-in sessions held in November, RDS London will be hosting two drop-in's at locations in East and West London.

The drop-in sessions are open to all, whether you just want to find out more about the service or would like to discuss a proposal with one of RDS London's experts.

There will be a host of experts available on the day that will be able to offer you advice on all aspects of your proposal so come along and join the team for a cup of coffee and a chat.
